

From War to Peace

Restoration of the Village

Tran Ngoc Chau

Phuc Hing Xang Xa
↑

(return to old basis)

Q: Defeating Communists in VN

The Pacification of the Village

Many ^{good} ~~old~~ things in old way of life have been destroyed; we must restore; then

Phuc - restore (pacifying is practical meaning; literary)

Hing - move up, to higher progress

Pacification — Binh Dinh (military word).

(Maj. of in 1953: in 1954 ^{8th} cond. of br in 2nd GM in

Quang Nam — Lu Xan was Lt. in S-2 of GM;
Vinh Loc was major, Ch. of Staff; Thang was capt., leading ant group; Sang was Lt., Chan's XO (good).

Thien was then Lt. col., dep. Chf of II Mil.
Region; Khien was maj., Chf of staff II MR.

Ozer was major, Chf of staff of 22d GM:
worked with Chan.

in 1957, ^{Lt Col.} Ozer was 4th Div Comdr; Chan was Dep C/S for Op + Training. (first time since).

"The people are the most important

The nation is second

The king comes third."

Mandala

372-289 B.C.

Part I

Restoration of the Village

I. Introduction

1. Priority for Pacification
2. Building up Confidence [among the government elements and among the people]
3. Know Your Area
4. Improve the Life of the People
4. Promote Ownership of the Peasant
5. Organize the People.
6. Organize ~~the~~ Government By and For the People
7. People's Self-Defense Force
8. Conclusion
9. Annex (Other Problems)

Part II

Rural Instruction: ^(picture of) through a rural village

The Village of Son-Dông (Kien Hoa)

Introduction

1. Land and People
2. Rural Activities
3. Organization of the Government
4. VC Organization
5. Conclusion

Charts